Child Consignment Sale Events

Consignor Agreement

As a consignor with The Children's Clothesline™, I agree to the following terms and conditions in connection with the sale:

1. I understand that any of my consigned items not marked for donation must be picked up between the hours of 12:30pm – 3:30pm on Sunday. There are no storage facilities for these items so The Children's Clothesline has no choice but to donate them on Sunday at 3:30pm, there are no means for retrieving your items at a later time or date.
2. I understand that I will receive 60% of sales for items that sell minus $5 consignor fee. (Volunteers will receive the percentage that corresponds to shifts worked.)
3. I understand that The Children's Clothesline™ will not be held liable for any consigned item(s) that become lost, stolen or damaged. The Children's Clothesline™ will not compensate consignors for lost, stolen or damaged items. It is my responsibility to check for all items at consignor pick up.
4. I have checked my items for any recalls at www.cpsc.gov and/or www.recalls.gov; I am not consigning any recalled items.
5. I have read the following documents which were provided at www.thechildrensclothesline.com:
  - a) Consignor Letter
  - b) Tagging Instructions & Guidelines
  - c) What Can I Sell?
  - d) Consignor Agreement
6. During consignor pickup I am responsible for checking:
  - a) Loose Tag Board
  - b) Items Missing Tags
  - c) List of Items Sold Without Tags
  - d) Items Pulled from Floor – for either quality issues or item was not in season.
