p.m. (half price). The pre-sale for volunteers is March 26, 6 to 9 p.m.; for consigners is March 27, 6 to 9 p.m. More information: www.thechildrens-clothesline.com.

▲ ECO-SMART Maui artist McKenna Hallett rescues and reuses old copper roof flashing, discarded gutters and other reusable materials to make earrings and pendants by hand – without the use of electricity, heat or corrosive chemicals. A selection of her “low impact” jewelry (priced $23 to $83) is available at Johannah's Jewelry Boutique, 106 North St., Hingham. 781-749-6110. More information: www.lowerimpact.com.

▼ LETTER PERFECT “That looks like an ‘E,’” said 5-year-old Maggie Bosley about her father’s photo of a storm drain. Soon, the whole family was looking for letter shapes in nature and architecture and spelling names and words with Mr. Bosley’s photographs. Each black-and-white letter photo (4-inches-by-6-inches) by South Carolina photographer Scott Bosley sells for $8.50 at Sylvia's By the Sea, 131 Front St., Scituate. Gallery-quality frames for displaying three to 10 photos are also available. 781-545-6060. www.sylviasbythesea.com.
